

BRITISH SHIPS ATTACKED FROM AIR AND WATER—LAND FIGHTING CONTINUOUS

London.—The British cargo steamer Teal arrived after escape from a German taube off the Dutch coast. The German hurled four bombs at the steamer. One of them rained a shower of steel darts when it exploded. The taube then turned a machine gun upon the Teal. Only damage was a small hole made in deck by one of the darts.

South Shields, Eng.—Newcastle steamer Duffield reported upon arrival that she escaped from a German submarine off the south coast of England after a thrilling chase.

Paris.—Gains for the Belgians along the Yser are announced. While one Belgian division made progress along the right bank another Belgian division captured a German trench on the left bank.

Berlin, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I.

—Continuing their pursuit of Russians who fled from Memel, German troops have captured 500 prisoners near Polangen and have taken three cannon and five machine guns. Cattle, horses and all sorts of loot stolen by the Russians in their raid into Prussia were recovered, the official statement said. Northwest of Ostrolenka several Russian attacks have been repulsed.

Rome.—Leaders of the Italian interventionist party today announced plans for monster pro-war demonstrations in Rome, Genoa, Naples and other Italian cities next Sunday. Their aim is to fan the flame of public sentiment and force the cabinet to deliver an ultimatum to Austria that will mean war.

London.—Five allies' aviators bombarded German shipyards at Hoboken, three miles from Antwerp, dropping bombs on spot where German submarines were under construction. Works were set afire.

Petrograd.—200,000 Russian troops and many batteries of new artillery released for Cracow and Hungarian campaigns by surrender of Przemyśl and are prepared to strike crushing blow against Austro-Germans as soon as troop trains can carry them to front.

As rapidly as possible Austrian prisoners are being hurried out of Przemyśl and across Galician border to Russian prison camps. Several thousands already have arrived at Kief, their clothing tattered and many suffering from disease.

JUDGE OLSON RAPS POLICE IN HULL HOUSE RIOT CASE

Chief Justice Olson of the Municipal court today took a heavy fall out of the police for their actions in the Hull House unemployed riot several weeks ago.

The case came before Judge Olson after Att'y's William A. Cunnea and Wm. F. Rodriguez, representing the men and women arrested after the riot, had asked for a change of venue from Judge Mahoney to Judge Gemmill.

In Olson's court Detective Sergeants Chas. Yancey and Make Mills stepped up to the bench and informed the judge that this was the case of "the riot started by Lucy Parsons and the other anarchists."

Immediately Judge Olson scored the attitude of the police and suggested that it looked as though the police were framing up to injure Jane Addams and Hull House.

He granted the plea of the attorneys to transfer the case.

BABE BURNED—HUNT MOTHER

St. Paul, Minn., March 24.—Police are today searching for Miss Elizabeth Schab, alleged by them to be the mother of the babe whose charred body was found this morning in the furnace of the Jewish Home for the Aged. She was employed there as a domestic. The baby was born March 9 in West St. Paul and had been reported to be healthy.
